

Justin Bieber Baby Mp4 Video Song Free Download Justin Bieber's video for his song "Baby" has just been released for free download! This is the song that Justin wrote about his on-and-off relationship with girlfriend Selena Gomez. We're sure you'll love this upbeat, feel-good track. Watch it here! Though he can be accused of many things, at least Justin has the sense to release short music videos for songs he'd hope people would pay money to buy. That's far more than we can say for some of today's biggest artists who put out 15 second clips that require you to also purchase an album if you want to see what the artist looked like at age 14. Justin's video for his new single "Baby" will be released on Saturday (July 30) via iTunes. The short clip features the "Boyfriend" singer dancing with several scantily clad ladies at a pool party; no doubt an attempt to make the nearly three minutes feel like less of a commitment. Watch the lyric video below: Justin Bieber's "Baby" is one of his first post-SNL (and pre-fame) singles, and is set to become one of his most successful yet. The track reached #5 on Billboard's Hot 100 earlier this week, following it up with its official music video, which was released later today.
